

Privacy Policy

App, developed under GobournHub Pty Ltd, takes your privacy seriously. To better protect your privacy, we provide this privacy policy explaining how your personal information is collected and used within the application.

This application collects basic user information necessary to provide its services. This may include email addresses used for authentication, user-generated content such as timetable entries, job postings, and interactions within the app. In addition, the app may automatically collect non-personal information such as IP addresses, browser or device details, timestamps, and general usage data. This information does not personally identify users and is used for system administration, maintenance, and improving the user experience.

Where necessary, App may use cookies or similar technologies to store information about user preferences and activity. These are used to enhance the overall experience by remembering settings and providing more personalised features. Users can choose to disable cookies through their browser settings if preferred.

App may use third-party services such as Supabase for authentication and database management, and Vercel for hosting and deployment. These services may collect and process information according to their own privacy policies. App does not have control over how these third-party services manage user data.

This application may include links to external websites, such as job application links or third-party resources. Please be aware that App is not responsible for the privacy practices of these external websites, and users are encouraged to review their privacy policies separately.

The security of your personal information is important to us. We take reasonable steps to protect your data using secure technologies and trusted platforms. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

This Privacy Policy is effective as of Wednesday, 22 April 2026 and may be updated at any time. Any changes will be reflected on this page, and continued use of the application indicates acceptance of the updated policy.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy, please contact us at team@gobournhub.com.
